Invest in the Mediterranean lifestyle, just 300 metres from the sea Discover an exciting new development in Torrevieja, Alicante, combining 24 contemporary touristic apartments and three exclusive villas in a prime coastal location just 300 metres from the Mediterranean Sea. Designed specifically for the tourist accommodation market, this modern development presents an attractive opportunity for investors looking to generate rental income while also enjoying personal use of their property for a permitted period each year. Combining contemporary architecture, resort-style communal facilities and a sought-after location close to the beach, the project brings together the appeal of a Mediterranean holiday destination with the convenience of a professionally considered, fully furnished property. With eight different property typologies available, buyers can choose from a selection of one, two and three-bedroom apartments, with one or two bathrooms...
